LENTEN STUDY

Please join us for a Lenten Study, utilizing Max O. Vincent's book, Because of This I Rejoice, beginning Tuesday, March 5th and continuing through Tuesday, April 9th in the Fellowship Hall. Soup and muffins/bread will be served at 5:30 pm followed by a discussion of the weekly reading from 6-7 pm. If you are interested in joining the Lenten Study, please contact Katy McGraw to order a book. The cost of the study book is $10. Feel free to participate in this study on your own or with the group. Any questions regarding the Lenten Study, please contact Katy McGraw or Janeane Hopkins. A brief description of the study is listed below:

"Rejoice in the Lord always – even during Lent. For too long Lent has been thought of as a season of self-sacrifice and discipline that intimidates many Christians, author Max O. Vincent writes. Sometimes Lent can feel like an endless list of spiritual chores.

Vincent lifts up the apostle Paul's letter to the Philippians as a way to find joy during Lent. In Philippians, Paul describes spiritual practices that help him sense God's power and presence even in the midst of persecution and imprisonment. This six-week Lenten study of Philippians offers a series of meditations about joyfully practicing spiritual disciplines."

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING

All around the world we see people whose homes and even loved ones have been washed away by hurricanes and floods, people trapped in systems of injustice and oppression, and people who will go to bed tonight hungry or without a roof over their heads.

One Great Hour of Sharing lets us come together to open our doors— as well as our hearts— to share the love of Christ through our ministries of justice and compassion.

Received during the season of Lent, Presbyterians worldwide join in sharing God's love with our neighbors-in-need around the world by providing relief from natural disasters, food for the hungry, and support from the poor and oppressed. This Lenten season, please give generously to One Great Hour of Sharing.

Ways to Give:

- ◆ Through your congregation by placing an envelope or check labeled "One Great Hour of Sharing"
